SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As reflected in the presentence report, the deft. presents a low risk of future substance abuse and therefore, the court hereby suspends the mandatory condition for substance abuse testing as defined by 18 USC 3563 (a)(5). However, this does not preclude the probation office from administering drug tests as they may deem appropriate.
The deft. shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include residential treatment and testing to determine whether the deft. has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, with partial cost to be paid by the deft., all as directed by the probation officer.
The deft. shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health program/anger management/alcohol education treatment. The costs of these programs are to be paid partially by the deft. as directed by the probation officer.
The deft. shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding substance abuse treatment in order to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and the Bureau of Prisons and authorize communication between the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons and the treatment provider.
The deft. shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.
The deft. shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information.
The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritances, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
The defendant shall participate in the Treasury Offset Program.
The defendant shall pay for the support of his children in the amount ordered by any social service agency or court of competent jurisdiction. In the absence of such order, payments are to be made on a schedule to be determined by the Court at the inception of supervision, based on the defendant=s financial circumstances.
The deft. shall be on Home Detention, which shall include electronic monitoring at the deft's expense, for a period of consecutive months/days. During this time, he/she shall remain at his/her place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the probation officer.
While on home detention, the deft. shall maintain a telephone at his place of residence without party lines, telephone answering machines, a modem, "call forwarding," "caller ID," "call waiting," "portable cordless telephones or any other devices or services that may interfere with the proper functioning of the electronic monitoring equipment for the above period. He shall wear an electronic monitoring device, follow electronic monitoring procedures, and pay the cost of the electronic monitoring, all as directed by the probation officer.
The defendant shall obtain a General Equivalency Diploma (GED) or a vocational skill if not employed - full-time and if not previously obtained.
Upon completion of the term in imprisonment, the defendant is to be surrendered to a duly-authorized immigration official of the Department of Homeland Security Bureau of Immigration and Customs

Naturalization Act, 8 USC Section 1101, et seq.

SEX OFFENDER CONDITIONS

- 1) If the defendant tests positive for illicit substances or alcohol during his period of supervised release, he shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include residential treatment and testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, with partial costs to be paid by the defendant, all as may be directed by the probation officer.
- 2) The defendant will abstain from alcohol during his period of supervised release unless he has pre-approval therefrom the probation officer.
- 3) The defendant shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding substance abuse treatment or psychological treatment in order to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and to the Bureau of Prisons, and authorize communication between the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, and any treatment provider.
- 4) The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment to include a psychosexual evaluation and sex offender treatment. The costs of these programs are to be paid partially by the defendant as may be directed by the probation officer.
- 5) The defendant shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding sex offender and mental health treatment to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and the Bureau of Prisons and authorize communication between the probation officer and the Bureau of Prisons and any treatment provider.
- 6) The defendant shall submit to polygraph testing as directed by the United States Probation Office as part of his sexual offender therapeutic treatment. The costs of the testing are to be paid partially by the defendant, all as directed by the probation officer.
- 7) The defendant shall submit to penile plethysmograph testing or Able Assessment for Sexual Interest as directed by the United States Probation Office as part of his sex offender therapeutic treatment. The costs of the testing are to be paid partially by the defendant as may be directed by the probation officer.
